

Safeguard

Health & Safety Support

Case Study

October 2012
Sector: Health & Safety

Client Profile

Safeguard are a manufacturer, supplier and installer of double glazed units and toughened safety glass.

Client Issues

Safeguard required health and safety support to ensure they complied with all legal obligations and instilled good working practices throughout their organisation.

IMG's Solution

IMG provide routine health and safety support to Safeguard that includes system development and implementation, training and auditing. We have worked closely with the management team and employees to develop a series of risk assessments and safe systems of work for the business.

IMG provide advice and support in a number of areas including noise exposure and COSHH and are undertaking workplace inspections and training for their installation teams.
